Belfast Royal Academy seeks to provide a safe and supportive educational environment in which pupils have the opportunity to achieve their potential. All pupils have a right to be educated in an atmosphere in which they feel valued, secure and supported by each member of the community. The values of the School emphasise respect for each individual and encourage tolerance and openness. By its nature, bullying is contrary to these values and is unacceptable.

This policy has been drawn up in line with current government guidance and legislation:

- Addressing Bullying in Schools Act (Northern Ireland) 2016
- Education and Libraries (Northern Ireland) Order 2003
- ‘Pastoral Care in Schools: Promoting Positive Behaviour’, (Department of Education, 2001)
- ‘Pastoral Care in Schools: Child Protection’, (Department of Education, 1999)

DEFINITION

Bullying can be defined as the use of power to hurt, harm or affect the rights and needs of a person or people. (Department of Education, Northern Ireland).

Bullying is a form of unacceptable behaviour, but not all unacceptable behaviour can be considered bullying.

According to the Northern Ireland Anti-Bullying Forum (NIABF), bullying usually has three key elements:

- It is repeated behaviour that happens over a period of time
- It involves an imbalance of power
- It is intentionally hurtful behaviour

AIMS

The ethos of Belfast Royal Academy is important in helping to address the issue of bullying and in minimising its incidence. However, bullying must also be addressed in more specific ways. Preventing and countering bullying require an awareness of bullying type behaviour and a collective vigilance on the part of all members of the school community.

This Anti-Bullying Policy aims to:

1. help in the understanding of what constitutes bullying-type behaviour
2. indicate approaches to preventing bullying and to responding to bullying type behaviour

1. Identifying Bullying

Bullying can take different forms. The following are examples of different types of bullying behaviour:

- physical aggression, for example, through hitting, kicking, pushing or tripping.
- interference with another's property, causing deliberate damage to that property, or theft.
- verbal, for example, through racist, homophobic, transphobic or sectarian remarks, threats, name calling or demeaning comments.
- emotional hurt, for example, through isolating or excluding an individual from the activities and social acceptance of his peer group or spreading rumours.
- intimidation and harassment, for example, through pressure from members of a group against an individual so that he/she feels uneasy or frightened.
- using Information and Communications Technology to deliberately upset someone else, for example through mobile phone calls, text messages, postings on social media, sending picture/video clips via mobile phones, emails, chatrooms, instant messaging and websites. This is called cyberbullying and is the subject of a separate policy, the school's Anti-Cyberbullying Policy.

Staff will receive training regarding identifying bullying, including signs of distress, poor attendance and other possible indications.

2. Preventing Bullying

Each member of the school community has a role to play in helping to prevent bullying and in creating an atmosphere in which it is not allowed to develop. In Belfast Royal Academy, action will be taken to seek to prevent bullying in the following ways:

- By promoting and maintaining an ethos which encourages consideration and respect for others and which is firmly based on the values of Belfast Royal Academy.
- By educating pupils about the boundaries of appropriate behaviour towards others and addressing bullying and related issues through Tutorials, Assemblies and the Personal Development programme.
- By ensuring effective supervision of locations within School where bullying is likely to occur and highlighting to pupils, with the support of parents, the importance of appropriate behaviour when travelling to and from school.
- By ensuring that pupils and parents are aware of school policy on the use of mobile phones within School and on the use of the internet within School (through the eSafety Policy and the Acceptable Use Policy).
- By utilising Prefects and senior pupils as Mentors.
- By liaising with other agencies as appropriate, eg the Education Authority, Social Services, Translink and PSNI.
- By encouraging a strong sense of belonging to School through participation in extra-curricular activities.
- By having clear procedures for responding to bullying, which are kept under regular review

3. Procedures for dealing with Bullying

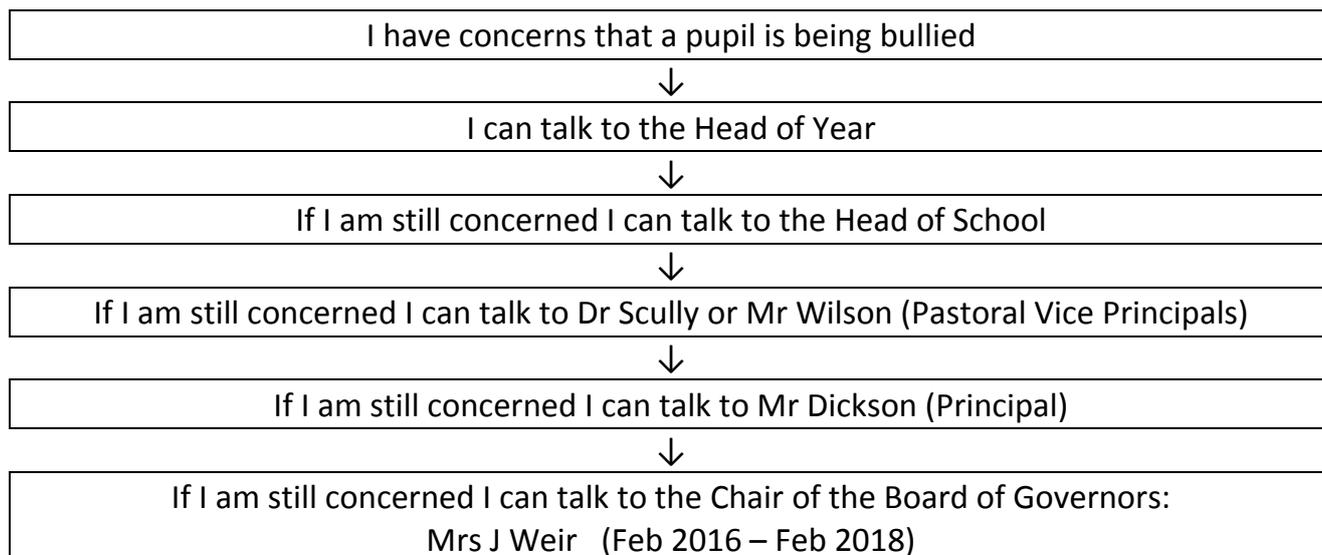

Bullying is unacceptable and a culture of openness is the best way to counter such behaviour. It is the responsibility of each member of the community – pupils, staff and parents - to report instances of bullying or suspicions of bullying, in the understanding that all such reports will be listened to and taken seriously.

In each instance, the priority should be that the bullied pupil feels supported and that the individuals responsible for bullying are made aware that their behaviour is unacceptable and the bullying stops.

It is accepted that the precise action taken will vary from incident to incident. However, the broad guidelines below apply:

- Instances of bullying or suspicion of bullying (whether in school, at a school event or on a bus/train to/from school) should be reported by pupils, parents or other members of staff to the Head of Year in the first instance. However, it is recognised that on occasion, the report may be made to a Head of School, Vice Principal or Principal.
- A record of any report will be taken and, in all instances, forwarded to the relevant Vice Principal (Pastoral for Boys or Girls) who will keep an overview.
- The Head of Year will investigate, in liaison with the Head of School and the relevant Vice Principal.
- Pupils directly involved may be asked to give a written account of the incident.
- Parents of all pupils involved will be contacted promptly.
- If necessary, referrals to outside agencies will be made.
- The pupil bullied will be given practical advice and support; pastoral support, including counselling by the School Counsellor, will be offered.
- The Vice Principal (Pastoral for Boys or Girls) will keep a written record of the reports and investigations, including what appears to be the motivation for the bullying.
- An appropriate response will be made, and recorded, with regard to the individual responsible (see 4. below).
- The situation will be monitored by the Head of Year to ensure the welfare of all pupils involved has been maintained.
- Teachers of the pupils involved will be informed so that they can contribute to monitoring the situation.

REPORTING A CONCERN

Any person listed above may be contacted by telephoning the main School switchboard on (028) 9074 0423.

4. Responses to Bullying

The welfare needs of all children and young people are paramount and pupils' needs, whether bully or targeted pupil, need to be separated from their behaviour. A range of responses may be used in dealing with instances of bullying. The response(s) to be used will depend upon the severity and persistence of the bullying.

When bullying concerns are identified our school will work in a restorative way to achieve the necessary change i.e. it is intended that the person responsible will learn from what has happened and will change his or her behaviour. Education and awareness-raising are effective ways of challenging bullying and encouraging individual pupils to take responsibility for their own actions. This may include the pupil's involvement in a programme of mentoring, counselling, community service, or referral to an outside agency. Class activities and Assemblies may also be used more generally for this purpose.

In addition, sanctions, in line with the Positive Behaviour Policy, to be considered are:

- (a) Verbal reprimand from Head of Year/Head of School/Vice Principal/Principal
- (b) Verbal or written apology
- (c) Friday detention
- (d) Saturday detention
- (e) Removed from circulation during Break and/or Lunchtime for a period of time
- (f) Suspension
- (g) Expulsion

Parents will be made aware of our school's practice to prevent and to respond to concerns through parent information events, consultation processes and where necessary, their active participation in partnership with the school to resolve concerns involving their child.

This Anti-Bullying policy has been drawn up in consultation with pupils through the Pupil Council, Heads of Year and School, the Vice Principals (Pastoral), the Principal, parents and members of the Board of Governors. The Anti-Bullying policy is kept under review.
