We intend to comply with our legal obligations under the Data Protection Act 2018 (the '2018 Act') and the EU General Data Protection Regulation ('GDPR') in respect of data privacy and security. We have a duty to notify you of the information contained in this policy.

1.2 This policy applies to current pupils and parents and prospective pupils and their parents / guardians. If you fall into one of these categories, then you are a 'data subject' for the purposes of this policy. You should read this policy and any other notice we issue to you from time to time in relation to your data.

We will only hold data for as long as necessary for the purposes for which we collected it. The School has taken measures to protect the security of your data.

1.4 The School is a 'data controller' for the purposes of your personal data. This means that we determine the purpose and means of the processing of your personal data.

1.5 This policy explains how the School will hold and process your information. It explains your rights as a data subject.

2 Data Protection Principles

2.1 Personal data must be processed in accordance with six 'Data Protection Principles.' It must:

- be processed fairly, lawfully and transparently;
- be collected and processed only for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes;
- be adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary for the purposes for which it is processed;
- be accurate and kept up to date. Any inaccurate data must be deleted or rectified without delay;
- not be kept for longer than is necessary for the purposes for which it is processed; and
- be processed securely.

We are accountable for these principles and must be able to show that we are compliant.

3 How we define personal data

3.1 'Personal data' means information which relates to a living person who can be identified from that data (a 'data subject') on its own, or when taken together with other information which is likely to come into our possession. It includes any expression of opinion about the person and an indication of the intentions of us or others, in respect of that person. It does not include anonymised data.

3.2 This policy applies to all personal data whether it is stored electronically, on paper or on other materials.

3.3 This personal data might be provided to us by you, or someone else (such as the Education Authority, an examining body, your former school, a medical practitioner/ consultant), or it could be created by us. We mainly collect personal information about our pupils and parents/ guardians throughout the course of the pupil's time at the school, for example, when completing educational visit consent forms, from statutory curriculum assessments and throughout our relationship with a pupil, when we are exercising our legal obligations as a public educational body and in carrying out our pastoral care role.

3.4 We will collect and use the following types of personal data about you:

- Your name including legal and preferred name, date of birth and unique reference number
- Contact details of parents/ guardians and emergency contact details
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- Who has parental responsibility and any Court Orders (if applicable)
- Your gender;
- Medical information, welfare and dietary issues, special educational needs information

- Your ethnicity and home language
- Your entitlement to free school meals

4 How we define special categories of personal data

4.1 'Special categories of personal data' are types of personal data consisting of information as to:

- your racial or ethnic origin;
- your religious or philosophical beliefs;
- your genetic or biometric data;
- your health; special educational needs, allergies and disabilities

6 How will we process your personal data?

6.1 The School will process your personal data (including special categories of personal data) in accordance with our obligations under the 2018 Act.

6.2 We will use your personal data and special categories of personal data as listed above:

- if it is necessary for performing tasks in the public interest, for us to exercise our authority as a public educational body (the majority of data categorised under 3.4 and 4 above falls into this classification, with the exception of those listed under other legal bases for processing of data- see below)
- To comply with any legal obligation (this includes data collected for completion of census returns as required by the Department of Education, and covers the categories listed above such as your religion, ethnicity and home language and information provided to examination bodies).
- Less frequently, to protect a pupil's or their family's interests (or someone else's interests). This might be to investigate a complaint made by another pupil.

We can process your personal data for these purposes without your knowledge or consent. We will not use your personal data for an unrelated purpose without telling you about it and the legal basis that we intend to rely on for processing it.

If you choose not to provide us with certain personal data you should be aware that we may not be able to carry out our legal obligations or perform tasks which are in the public interest. For example, if you do not provide us with your ethnicity and religion, we will be unable to fulfil our legal obligation to complete the Department of Education census forms.

7 Examples of when we might process your personal data

7.1 We have to process your personal data in various situations during your time at the school, and if you become an alumnus, once you leave the school. We also track destinations of our former pupils.

7.2 We will only process certain special categories of your personal data (see above) in certain situations in accordance with the law. For example, we can do so if we have your explicit consent. If we asked for your consent to process a special category of personal data then we would explain the reasons for our request. You do not need to consent and can withdraw consent later if you choose by contacting the General Office Supervisor. Any use of your information before you withdraw consent remains valid.

7.3 We require your explicit consent for processing of photographic images for publicity and fundraising purposes, for collection of biometric data for use in the school canteen and for storing of CCTV recorded images of individual pupils.

7.4 For photographic images and use of biometric data, we will seek explicit parental consent for pupils in Forms 1-V, and will seek pupil consent for use of data for these purposes when pupils are in Sixth Form.

7.5 We do not need your consent to process special categories of your personal data when we are processing it for the following purposes, which we may do:

- where it is necessary for carrying out rights and legal obligations;
- where processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- where processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest; and
- where it is necessary to protect your vital interests or those of another person where you/they are physically or legally incapable of giving consent;

9.2 If you would like to make a SAR in relation to your personal information or be given access to your child's educational record you should make this request in writing to the Head of Finance & Corporate Services. To withdraw your consent, you should contact the Head of Finance & Corporate Services.
